EOC Study Guide

ENLIGHTENMENT ERA (1600 – 1800)

- The Enlightenment was a 17th century intellectual movement.
- It worked to limit the power of monarch governments (kings and queens) and religious leaders.
- Other important Enlightenment ideas include popular sovereignty and natural rights.
- John Locke believed the job of government was to protect the rights of people or be overthrown, and his ideas greatly influenced the American colonists.
- Major Enlightenment thinkers:
 - Locke = Natural Rights
 - Montesquieu = Separation of Powers
 - Voltaire = Freedom of Speech
- Enlightenment ideas led to the American Revolutionary War, the Declaration of Independence, U.S. Constitution, Bill of Rights, and the French Revolution.

INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION (CONTINUED)

- Urbanization led to several negative effects:
 - Pollution
 - Dangerous working conditions
 - Long hours and low wages
 - Child labor
 - Slums and poor housing conditions
 - Cramped living spaces and rampant diseases
- Labor unions formed to combat terrible working conditions in factories and sought better pay, shorter hours, and improved conditions.
- Henry Ford – founder of the Ford Motor Company – used the assembly line to produce his cars fast and cheap. This revolutionized manufacturing and gave rise to specialized labor.

INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION (1750 – 1900)

- The Industrial Revolution took place in the late 1700s in Europe and in the early 1800s in America, and it was a time of technological innovation.
- Improved agricultural technology, like steam-powered tractors and large-scale food processing factories led to increased food yields.
- Railroad linked cities, brought materials to factories more efficiently, increased trade between cities and countries, and allowed people to move more freely.
- Many people moved from rural areas to cities to find work in newly built factories, a movement known as urbanization.

A Study of Core Functions in Emergency Management As Reflected in Training Requirements for Professional Certification Walter Guerry Green, III, 2000 This study examined emergency management certification programs in order to understand what the training requirements for state emergency management certification reveal about the core functions of emergency management as conducted by emergency managers working in local jurisdictions Based on practices in the 23 certification programs managed by state emergency management agencies or professional associations at the time of the study qualitative content analysis identified a range of core functions practiced by those programs that specified training requirements in terms of specific courses The application of grounded theory techniques to interview data from certification program managers and state emergency management training officers in 50 states resulted in the development of the theory that training requirements are adopted to meet a variety of goals These goals include those appropriate to perceived needs of the sponsoring organizations and individual emergency managers as well as goals that seek to promote competent performance of emergency management tasks The list of core functions identified in state level certification programs generally agreed with a list of core functions developed from the literature indicating that practitioners at the local state and federal level have a common understanding of the essential tasks of the evolving profession of emergency management as performed in local jurisdictions Standard Nomenclature List United States Armed Forces Institute, 1953 The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education Michael L. Wehmeyer, James R. Patton, 2017-06-15 This handbook provides a concise overview of special education services in countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities as the analytical frame The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education presents a concise and clear overview of special education services in more than 70 countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with disabilities as the analytical frame Each chapter offers information about the country in general followed by sections on the public education system the private education system the special education system teacher training requirements and barriers to and promising trends in inclusive and special education The volumes and chapters are organized by the United Nations Geoscheme with Volume 1 including an overview of the volumes and chapters on countries in the Americas Volume 2 addressing countries from Europe and Africa and Volume 3 focusing on countries in Asia and Oceania This is the most complete exploration of the delivery of supports and services to children and youth with disabilities across the globe available The volumes do not compare among or between countries but rather provide a baseline for understanding current special education practices and their relationship with general education and inclusive practices across the globe Readers will come away with an in depth understanding of what is happening with regard to the implementation of special education services and Article 24 of the Convention for the Rights of People with Disabilities This valuable reference set serves researchers graduate students and policymakers in special and general education as well as professionals focused on issues of education worldwide and scholars focused on international special education As such this handbook will be an important reference source for university libraries professional associations and policy entities

The meaning of public authority under the Human Rights Act Great Britain: Parliament: Joint Committee on Human Rights, 2007-03-28 Section 6 of the Human Rights Act HRA makes it unlawful for public authorities to act in breach of Convention rights UK courts have adopted a restrictive interpretation of the meaning of public authority potentially depriving numerous often vulnerable people from the human rights protection afforded by the HRA There has been little evidence of progress since the previous report on this matter HL 39 HC 382 7th report session 2003 4 ISBN 9780104004173 Chapter 2 examines developments in case law since 2004 and the Committee considers the Government's 2005 guidance on contracting for services in the light of the Human Rights Act takes a very negative approach to the difficulties facing the use of contracts to secure better the protection of human rights lacks accessibility and is difficult to understand and has little or no influence on the procurement policies of local authorities In Chapter 3 the Committee considers the case for further action to overcome the problems arising from a narrow interpretation of public authority It concludes that the practical implications of the current case law are such that some service users are deprived of a right to an effective remedy for any violation of their Convention rights The Committee has not seen any convincing evidence that providers would leave the public services market if they were subject to the duty to act compatibly with Convention rights despite the Government's premature and unsupported concerns about market flight In

Chapter 4 the Committee considers steps which could be taken to resolve the problems identified including use of legislation to clarify the meaning of public authority in section 6 HRA through a separate supplementary and interpretative statute
