3.1 Role and importance of the eight business functions

- When a business is launched by its owner, the entrepreneur, all the business functions are performed ✓ by the owner himself. ✓
- As the business expands and more people need to be employed ✓, the role and importance of certain business functions change. ✓
- For example when production increases, ✓ people may be appointed to fulfil the marketing function and its promotions, advertising, etc. ✓
- Should the business grow to a point that warrants the business becoming a company ✓, the role and importance of the business functions will change again. ✓
- Each function will have its own director ✓ to make strategic decisions pertaining to that function. ✓
- Board meetings will be held to ensure that there is complete interaction ✓ and interdependence among all the functions. ✓
- Any other relevant answer.

- Total for the sector = sum of businesses which provide all the varied services of that type, which is then sold to the products from the secondary sector of producers to the end consumer
- Auxiliary services: a part of the tertiary sector which provides services, but to other businesses rather than to the end consumer
- In the tertiary sector, goods that are produced in the secondary sector are distributed to the end consumer
- The tertiary sector makes the largest contribution to South Africa's GDP
- The tertiary sector is divided into the tertiary sector proper
