The 13th IISS conference held on October 30th 31st 2019 at Malang East Java Indonesia      Proceedings of the International Conference on English Language and Teaching (ICOELT 2022) Havid Ardi,M. Affandi Arianto,Nur Rosita,Carbiriena Solusia,Rizaldy Hanifa,2023-12-27 This is an open access book International Conference on English Language and Teaching ICOELT is an Annual conference hosted by English Department of Faculty of Languages and Arts Universitas Negeri Padang It was firstly conducted in 2013 as International Seminar on English Language and Teaching ISELT This event consistently invites reputed speakers and having competence in English Language Teaching from around the world      International Perspectives on Teachers Living with Curriculum Change Martin Wedell,Laura Grassick,2017-11-10 This book gives a voice to English language teachers faced with the challenges posed by English language curriculum change As a core component of national state system curricula in virtually every country in the world there has nevertheless been little research exploring how the millions of English teachers worldwide navigate the challenges posed by such curriculum changes This volume includes eleven stories from teachers based across every continent providing a global glimpse of how national English curriculum change projects have been experienced by classroom teachers who are commonly if erroneously viewed as mostly responsible for its implementation success or failure The final chapter synthesises these experiences and suggests wider implications for the development of curriculum change planning processes and how they might better support teachers attempts to achieve curriculum goals Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this ground breaking collection will be of interest to students and scholars of English language teaching teacher education curriculum change and education policy      Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin,2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry      English Language as Hydra Vaughan Rapatahana,Pauline Bunce,2012-06-22 In far too many places the worldwide trade in English language teaching testing and publishing has become a self-perpetuating self-congratulating neocolonial monster a veritable multi-headed Hydra Too often the English language industry aggressively promotes itself as some sort of uplifting essential proper or even better means of communication than any other language Unfortunately its relentless global outreach is taking place at the direct expense and the active denigration of local and regional languages not to mention individual identities English Language as Hydra brings together the voices of linguists literary figures and teaching professionals in a wide-ranging exposé of this monstrous Hydra in action on four continents It provides a showcase of the diverse and powerful impacts that this ever-evolving gluttonous beast has had on so many non-English language cultures as well as the surreptitious drug-like ways in which it can infiltrate individual psyches
