Il Prete Giusto:

Holocaust Odysseys Susan Zuccotti, 2007-01-01 Susan Zuccotti describes the ever escalating dangers to which Jewish refugees and recent immigrants were subjected to in France and Italy as the Holocaust marched forward She chronicles the lives of nine central and eastern European Jewish families through historical documents and personal testimonies

Ecocriticism and Italy Serenella Iovino, 2016-01-28 Winner of the MLA Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Italian Studies 2016 Winner of the American Association for Italian Studies Book Prize 2016 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Written by one of Europe's leading critics Ecocriticism and Italy reads the diverse landscapes of Italy in the cultural imagination From death in Venice as a literary trope and petrochemical curse through the volcanoes of Naples to wine food and environmental violence in Piedmont Serenella Iovino explores Italy as a text where ecology and imagination meet Examining cases where justice society and politics interlace with stories of land and life pollution and redemption the book argues that literature art and criticism are able to transform the unexpressed voices of these suffering worlds into stories of resistance and practices of liberation

Memory and Utopia Luisa Passerini, 2017-07-05 Memory and Utopia looks at the connection between memory and forgetfulness in Europe during the twentieth century Drawing on oral history and feminist theory and practice the book highlights how women struggled to be recognized as full subjects The themes of utopia and desire in the 1968 movements of students women and workers are explored Memory and Utopia examines the sense of belonging to Europe that has emerged in the last twenty years The book analyses European identity as expressed through identities based on gender age and culture to explore an inclusive and non hierarchical subjectivity

Memories and Silences Haunted by Fascism Daniela Baratieri, 2010 Fascist and colonial legacies have been determinant in shaping how Italian colonialism has been narrated in Italy till the late 1960s This book deals with the complex problem of public memory and discursive amnesia The detailed research that underpins this book makes it no longer possible to claim that after 1945 there was an absolute and traumatic silence concerning Italy's colonial occupation of North and East Africa However the abiding public use of this history confirms the existence of an extremely selective and codified memory of that past The author shows that colonial discourse persisted in historiography newspapers newsreels and film Popular culture appears intertwined with political and economic interests and the power inscribed in elite and scientific knowledge While readdressing the often mistaken historical time line that ignores that actual Italian colonial ties did not end with the fall of Fascism but in 1960 with Somalia becoming independent this book suggests that a new post Fascist Italian identity was the crucial issue in reappraisals of a national colonial past

Contested Pasts Katharine Hodgkin, Susannah Radstone, 2003-09-02 This interdisciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent
