Memory of Water Emmi Itäranta, 2014-06-10 An amazing award winning speculative fiction debut novel by a major new talent in the vein of Ursula K Le Guin Global warming has changed the world s geography and its politics Wars are waged over water and China rules Europe including the Scandinavian Union which is occupied by the power state of New Qian In this far north place seventeen year old Noria Kaitio is learning to become a tea master like her father a position that holds great responsibility and great secrets Tea masters alone know the location of hidden water sources including the natural spring that Noria s father tends which once provided water for her whole village But secrets do not stay hidden forever and after her father s death the army starts watching their town and Noria And as water becomes even scarcer Noria must choose between safety and striking out between knowledge and kinship Imaginative and engaging lyrical and poignant

Memory of Water is an indelible novel that portrays a future that is all too possible Nordic Speculative Fiction Jyrki Korpua, Aino-Kaisa Koistinen, Hanna-Riikka Roine, Marta Mboka Tveit, 2024-12-20 This volume brings together scholarly theories and practices on speculative fiction from the Nordic countries including Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden that are all rooted in similar values culture and history yet are independent and unique societies The book exhibits both the convergences and the diversity of the Nordics in fiction and fandom as well as in research It traces the roots of Nordic speculative fiction how it has developed over time and how the changes in Nordic environments and societies caused by overhanging shared global issues such as climate change mass migration and technological acceleration find space in speculative practices The first of its kind this book allows for deeper insights into the unique characteristics that make Nordic literature and art recognisable and allows for a better understanding of the place of the Nordics within wider global culture systems The chapters range from literary critiques film and television studies creative works by three Nordic creative writers transcultural text comparisons and contributions on speculative art to theoretical and methodological discussions on fandom worldbuilding and semantics Part of the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series this book contributes to connecting Nordic speculative fiction scholarship to the wider global community within the field It will be of interest to scholars and general enthusiasts of speculative fiction and those with interest in Nordic fiction film and television studies literary culture or media studies comparative literature and cultural history or art based research New Perspectives on International

Comparative Literature Cao Shunqing, Theo D'haen, Liang Chang, Zhou Shu, 2022-07-25 Bringing together 17 articles by renowned scholars from around the globe this volume offers a multi dimensional view of comparative and world literature Drawing on the scope of these scholars collective intellects and insights it connects disparate research contexts to illuminate the multi dimensional views of related areas as we step into the third decade of the 21st century The book will be of particular interest to scholars working in comparative literary and cultural studies and to readers interested in the future of literary studies in a cross culturized world

The Imagined Arctic in Speculative Fiction Maria Lindgren Leavenworth, 2023-07-31 The Imagined Arctic in Speculative Fiction explores the ways in which the Arctic is imagined and what function it is made to serve in a selection of speculative fictions non mimetic works that start from the implied question What if Spanning slightly more than two centuries of speculative fiction from the starting point in Mary Shelley s 1818 Frankenstein to contemporary works that engage with the vast ramifications of anthropogenic climate change analyses demonstrate how Arctic discourses are supported or subverted and how new Arctics are added to the textual tradition To illuminate wider lines of inquiry informing the way the world is envisioned humanity s place and function in it and more than human entanglements analyses focus on the function of the actual Arctic and how this function impacts and is impacted by speculative elements With effects of climate change training the global eye on the Arctic and as debates around future northern cultural economic and environmental sustainability intensify there is a need for a deepened understanding of the discourses that have constructed and are constructing the Arctic A careful mapping and serious consideration of both past and contemporary speculative visions thus illuminate the role the Arctic has played and may come to play in a diverse set of practices and fields

Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Elise Nykänen, 2024-11-08 Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Case Studies in Finnish Literature opens a new perspective on the thriving area of research on the imagined North by studying emotions in the light of case studies in Finnish literature The volume addresses the cultural history of Arctic hysteria and maps other strange emotions depicted and evoked in literature of the Finnish North The volume comprises seven case studies which range from the works of internationally renowned authors such as Rosa Liksom Emmi It ranta and Tove Jansson to the affectively controversial and provocative writings of Timo K Mukka Marko Tapio and Pentti Linkola Drawing from the study of the imagined North and theories and tools in the study of literature and emotions the analyses show how such moods as melancholia ecstasy or a peculiar sense of November are generated in texts and how literary emotions entangle with the Northern environment they depict By focusing on the imagined North in Finnish modernism and contemporary literature the authors offer original views on experiences of late modernity merging with the changing Northern environment in the age of the Anthropocene
