Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places Lynne Dixon, Alison Hales, 2013-12-04 A much needed and delightful book It shows how history can be taught with the meaningful experiences of each child at its centre making connections between the child the locality and community the national and global past and concepts of time Throughout the authors empower teachers to adopt their philosophy by showing them how to plan select resources and strategies and reflect on ideas and case studies Hilary Cooper Emeritus professor of history and pedagogy The University of Cumbria UK Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places puts the local environment and community at the heart of history showing how it can be used as the context for successful history teaching across the primary age range It considers how to develop children s concepts and skills through local history how to link local national and global aspects of history and helps you develop your own historical knowledge understanding and confidence in teaching the subject Practical topics explored include Investigating children s cultural and geographical roots through fieldwork Finding and visiting local museums archives and heritage sights Choosing and using resources Using significant people events and buildings to link with national history Environmental education and sustainable development through local history Understanding the links between history and everyday life Planning and assessing history Based on the latest research and practice in the field Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places offers an exciting template of creative ideas and activities to show teachers how they can make history relevant to all children

Seeing History: Public History in China LI Na, 2023-11-06 When public history was imported from the United States to China around the turn of the twenty first century it was introduced as a sub field within history and has developed along that path ever since Professional historians in China even some forward looking ones see public history as merely presenting a change in the patterns of participation in history making This book offers a sharply different view It contends essentially that public history represents more than a research domain within history or within any existing discipline nor does it fit into any established narratives but rather a fundamental change of the entire process of history making in China In this process the public is prosuming history Public history makes obsolete the old structure for building and acquiring historical knowledge it challenges the old assumptions supersedes the rigid academic hierarchy and stirs the imaginations of the multitudes With an assemblage of case studies this work makes a case for a system view of public history making or public history ing and launches a concept complex public history i e public history ing as complex adaptive systems

The University Kenyon B. De Greene, 2008-04-26 The twenty first century is lurching chaotically into a perilous and uncertain future Once vibrant and creative the University now large anachronistic and bureaucratic has all but exhausted its capabilities to respond to challenges and threats from within and without Years of hypocrisy and power politics have taken their toll on the would be second Caltech Now everything is going wrong A cynical attempt to fire a popular young teacher Alistair Higham explodes as students parents alumni and the professors professional organization come to the aid of the teacher Investigation by the professional organization brings other injustices to light It seems likely that the University will be censored and will lose its accreditation The neighborhood around the University rises in protest over the latter's ham-handed attempt to have a block of lower middle class houses razed to make room for a parking lot Tight connections with industry make the University a partner in dumping toxic wastes in poor Mexican American neighborhoods and in mining in mountain wildernesses Eventually a crafty liaison with the oil industry comes to a head as the University is revealed to be an indirect participant in genocide in Quetzalgalpa a remote and war-ravaged Central American country

Three Kingdoms Blazing Into History With A Desert Eagle To Restore The Han Dawn E Trivino, College student Liu Mao time-traveled to the Three Kingdoms era only to be dragged out and executed by Zhuge Liang right at the start for spreading rumors By accident he awakened the Restore the Han Dynasty system and started off with a Desert Eagle in hand At this time Liu Bei had just passed away in Baidi City and Liu Shan had inherited the throne Zhuge Liang wanted to form an alliance with Eastern Wu but lacked someone to send Liu Mao volunteered to go to Eastern Wu Pressing the barrel of his Desert Eagle against Sun Quan's head he asked So are we forming this alliance or not Sun Quan Lu Xun write a treaty of alliance to send to Shu Han Zhuge Liang Liu Mao has made great contributions in securing the alliance As a reward grant him the top dancer Rouge

A General History of the Order of the Eastern Star Willis Darwin Engle, 1901

A History of the Philippines Renato Constantino, Letizia R. Constantino, 1975 Unlike other conventional histories the unifying thread of A History of the Philippines is the struggle of the peoples themselves against various forms of oppression from Spanish conquest and colonization to U S imperialism Constantino provides a penetrating analysis of the productive relations and class structure in the Philippines and how these have shaped and been shaped by the role of the Filipino people in the making of their own history Additionally he challenges the dominant views of Spanish and U S historians by exposing the myths and prejudices propagated in their work and in doing so makes a major breakthrough toward intellectual decolonization This book is an indispensable key to the history of conquest and resistance in the Philippine
