

ply with a subpoena³⁰ and a reasonable time to prepare a defense.³¹ However, a grand jury investigation generally must not be frustrated or impeded by a requirement of minitrials or preliminary showings.³²

A mere assertion by a witness does not necessitate further proceedings.³³ If the witness makes a preliminary showing of impropriety, the court may grant appropriate relief and may require further proceedings.³⁴

Some authorities hold that, where a person moves to quash a grand jury subpoena as being unreasonable, the party who caused the subpoena to issue has the initial burden of going forward with evidence.³⁵ It has also been held that a prosecutor who seeks judicial enforcement of a grand jury directive for a lineup must make a preliminary showing.³⁶ In the case of a federal grand jury, a court may be justified in a case where unreasonableness is alleged in requiring the government to reveal the general subject of the grand jury's investigation before requiring the challenging party to carry its burden of persuasion.³⁷

A full evidentiary hearing is not necessarily required on a motion to quash a subpoena.³⁸ The court need not necessarily hold an evidentiary hearing on the grand jury's request for an order directing a person to appear at a lineup, and may decide the issue solely on the basis of evidence presented to the grand jury.³⁹

The court may in some circumstances conduct the hearing on a motion to quash a subpoena in camera, without participation by the movant.⁴⁰ Though in camera submissions of affidavits are not to be routinely accepted in seeking enforcement of a subpoena, an exception may be made where there is an ongoing interest in grand jury secrecy.⁴¹ In the case of a federal grand jury, the court may require that the government reveal the subject of the investigation to the court in camera, so that the court may determine whether the motion to quash has a reasonable prospect for success before it discloses the subject matter to the challenging party.⁴²
