Futures: Imagining Socioecological Transformation Bruce Willems-Braun, 2018-02-02 Futures Imagining Socioecological Transformation brings together leading scholars to explore how we might know enact and struggle for the conjoined social and ecological transformations we need to achieve just and sustainable futures The question of transformation and how it might be achieved is explored across a variety of topics and geographical sites and through heterodox analytical and theoretical approaches in a collective effort to move beyond a form of critique that hands down judgements to one that brings new ideas and new possibilities to life Chapters are lively and original engagements with concrete situations that sparkle with creativity Together they add up to an impressive study of how to live and what to struggle for in the complex socioecological landscapes of the Anthropocene This book was previously published as a special issue of the Annals of the Association of American Geographers Innovation in Developing and Transition Countries Alexandra Tsvetkova, Jana Schmutzler, Marcela Suarez, Alessandra Faggian, 2017-09-29 This edited volume offers a multidisciplinary perspective on innovation challenges and innovative practices in the context of developing and transition countries The contributions mostly embrace a national innovation system approach in an attempt to understand innovation processes and their implications at both macro and micro levels Geographies of Knowledge and Power Peter Meusburger, Derek Gregory, Laura

Suarsana, 2015-06-24 Interest in relations between knowledge power and space has a long tradition in a range of disciplines but it was reinvigorated in the last two decades through critical engagement with Foucault and Gramsci This volume focuses on relations between knowledge and power It shows why space is fundamental in any exercise of power and explains which roles various types of knowledge play in the acquisition support and legitimization of power Topics include the control and manipulation of knowledge through centers of power in historical contexts the geopolitics of knowledge about world politics media control in twentieth century cartography in modern war the power of words the changing face of Islamic authority and the role of Millennialism in the United States This book offers insights from disciplines such as geography anthropology scientific theology Assyriology and communication science Crippling Leviathan Melissa M. Lee Desfor, 2020-04-15

Policymakers worry that ungoverned spaces pose dangers to security and development Why do such spaces exist beyond the authority of the state Earlier scholarship which addressed this question with a list of domestic failures overlooked the crucial role that international politics play In this shrewd book Melissa M Lee argues that foreign subversion undermines state authority and promotes ungoverned space Enemy governments empower insurgents to destabilize the state and create ungoverned territory This kind of foreign subversion is a powerful instrument of modern statecraft But though subversion is less visible and less costly than conventional force it has insidious effects on governance in the target state To demonstrate the harmful consequences of foreign subversion for state authority Crippling Leviathan marshals a wealth of evidence and presents in depth studies of Russia's relations with the post Soviet states Malaysian subversion of the Philippines in the 1970s and Thai subversion of Vietnamese occupied Cambodia in the 1980s The evidence presented by Lee is persuasive foreign subversion weakens the state She challenges the conventional wisdom on statebuilding which has long held that conflict promotes the development of strong territorially consolidated states Lee argues instead that conflictual international politics prevents state development and degrades state authority In addition Crippling Leviathan illuminates the use of subversion as an underappreciated and important feature of modern statecraft Rather than resort to war states resort to subversion Policymakers interested in ameliorating the consequences of ungoverned space must recognize the international roots that sustain weak statehood Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen, 2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning

Self-determinable Development of Small Islands Masahide Ishihara, Eiichi Hoshino, Yoko Fujita, 2016-06-14 This book aims to clarify the present situation of the relations between small island countries and territories on the one hand and the great powers mainland areas and mega islands on the other and explores how small island countries and territories preserve and build their identity under globalization This book is divided into five parts The first part presents papers on issues that are related to Okinawa the American military presence the formation of a global human network and the history of and language revitalization in Okinawa The second part includes papers on security in East Asia and the Pacific Region the history of and present issues in international relations within the South and East China Sea areas The third part presents papers on economic issues and social developments on small islands The fourth part deals with ocean policies and marine resource management in the Pacific Region by the United States Australia and Japan Finally the fifth part presents papers on the revitalization of three indigenous languages All the chapters of the book are based on the achievements of the research project Towards New Island Studies The Ryukyus as an academic node between East Asia and Oceania conducted by the International Institute for Okinawan Studies at the University of the Ryukyus This 5 year project was funded by the Japanese Ministry of Education Culture Sports Science and Technology and aimed to contribute academically to the creation of sustainable and self determinable societies in small island regions This work will be extremely useful and informative for readers in small island countries and territories and for researchers who are interested in small island issues to understand the current situation and who wish to consider effectual and feasible solutions

The Politics of Refugee Policy in the Global South Ola G. El-Taliawi, 2024-06-15 Mass refugee movements represent a complex policy problem to host governments as they challenge existing socio economic and political structures While scholarship on refugee migration tends to centre on the Global North most refugees actually reside in the Global South where the capacity to provide assistance is limited Shifting the focus from sensationalist rhetoric about mass migration to the North The Politics of Refugee Policy in the Global South provides a comparative analysis of Lebanon's and Jordan's responses to the Syrian refugee movement one of the largest displacements in modern history Through extensive interviews and process tracing Ola El Taliawi uncovers the complex realities of refugee hosting and the hard choices governments make in light of this challenge Building on the concept of complexity El Taliawi employs a unique methodology and analytical approach painting a nuanced picture of asylum provision and identifying a spectrum of refugee hosting models More than ever we need a better understanding of the unique politics of refugee policymaking in the Global South This incisive book offers key insights for effective governance and reform of the global refugee regime Cash Not Care Mo Stewart,2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government
