Fann, Angelina E. Castagno, Jessica A. Solyom, 2012-02-23 American Indian Alaska Native AI AN students continue to be significantly underrepresented in institutions of higher education and continue to face barriers that impeded their academic success This volume explores the factors that influence college going in Indigenous communities and upon enrollment in institutions of higher education the factors that influence college completion Chapters cover The legacy of Western education in Indigenous communities The experiences of Indigenous students in the K 12 system Transition from student to faculty of AI AN graduates Recommendations that can improve the success of Indigenous students and faculty This is the fifth issue the 37th volume of the Jossey Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph in the series is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education problem based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication

Educational Challenges at Minority Serving Institutions Marybeth Gasman, Andrés Castro Samayoa, William Boland, Paola Esmieu, 2017-12-06 Minority Serving Institutions MSIs are responsible for educating 20 percent of the nation's college students and nearly 40 percent of the nation's students of color This growing group of institutions is essential to higher education and moving toward a more equitable society This important book focuses on the challenges faced by MSIs within the larger higher education context and provides practical solutions to address these challenges From performance based funding to issues of being dually designated MSIs to articulation agreements with community colleges to college readiness the authors tackle the most important topics in higher education by exploring these varied topics through the lens of MSIs

Co-Learning in Higher Education Edward P. St. John, 2022-11-14 Co Learning in Higher Education addresses topics critical to the future of higher education the wellbeing of communities engagement of scholars supporting new generations of social activists and the renewal and expansion of educational and career pathways It develops a theory of co learning that engages students and professors across generations in partnerships with community organizations schools and corporations that solve emerging social and environmental challenges Collaboratively written cases discuss community projects engaging pedagogies and action research projects These co cases demonstrate the power of using critical pedagogies and social action within troubling contexts rather than assuming public policy changes are the only solution Contributors explore mentoring discuss pedagogies that promote community wellbeing and equity address the urgency of change in universities and reflect on the implications of this chaotic period for empowering social agency among youth in rising generations This is a timely volume for scholars and students in higher education and educational policy Education in the Comanche Nation Linda Sue Warner,2016-02-05 This collection delivers an altogether unique perspective of research on American Indian Alaska Native education policy and practice by creating a cultural lens framed as tribal core values to allow readers to rethink research on and about tribal populations The policies that affect American Indian education often create a disconnect between an general educational hegemonic mandate of one size fits all and the deeply held cultural beliefs of American Indian Alaska Native peoples This book provides current thinking about both policies and processes that support native ways of knowing and how tribal incorporation of values support the resiliency that characterizes the United States first peoples It considers a range of issues including the relationship between Native American fathers and daughter how Habermasian theory applies to Native American education policy and the experiences of Indian college students in predominately white institutions This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Qualitative Studies in Education Universities and Global Diversity Beverly Lindsay,Wanda J. Blanchett,2012-11-12 This volume seeks to critically examine the nexus between globalization and diversity as it affects the preparation of professional educators on several continents taking into account the extensive changes in economic sociopolitical and cultural dynamics within nations and regions that have occurred in the last decade Journal of American Indian Education ,2015 Beyond Access Stephanie J. Waterman,Shelly C. Lowe,Heather J. Shotton,2023-07-03 This book argues that two principal factors are inhibiting Native students from transitioning from school to college and from succeeding in their post secondary studies It presents models and examples of pathways to success that align with Native American students aspirations and cultural values Many attend schools that are poorly resourced where they are often discouraged from aspiring to college Many are alienated from the educational system by a lack of culturally appropriate and meaningful environment or support systems that reflect Indigenous values of community sharing honoring extended family giving back to one s community and respect for creation The contributors to this book highlight Indigenized college access programs meaning programs developed by not just for the Indigenous community and are adapted or developed for the unique Indigenous populations they serve Individual chapters cover a K 12 program to develop a Native college going culture through community engagement a crash course offered by a higher education institution to compensate for the lack of college counseling and academic advising at students schools the role of tribal colleges and universities the recruitment and retention of Native American students in STEM and nursing programs financial aid educational leadership programs to prepare Native principals superintendents and other school leaders and finally data regarding Native American college students with disabilities The chapters are interspersed with narratives from current Indigenous graduate students This is an invaluable resource for student affairs practitioners and higher education administrators wanting to understand and serve their Indigenous students Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2016: National Labor Relations Board; Centers for Disease Copntrol and Prevention; Early Education Panel; EBOLA; Panel on Programs Supporting Native Americans; Testimony of interested individuals and organizations United States.
